LEADING MERCHANTS TO OBSERVE HOLIDAY

Although Acting Governor Hardin Bannion has issued a proclamation urging the state of Utah to observe November 11 as it was observed last year and while his request has been considered in many parts of the state, the members of the local chapter of the American Legion expect to have a "regular" holiday when that celebration is staged.

Petitions to all the merchants to close on Armistice day have been started by the Herman Baker Post and thus far the members of the organization have had wonderful luck. The petition which was started today carried the signatures of the following firms up until the Standard went to press this afternoon:

J. S. Lewis & Co., Buchmiller-Kaplan company; Last & Thomas; Horrocks Brothers; Brown-Carlson-Treeder; Richardson-Hunt company; American Grocery company; Prouditt Sporting Goods company; Taylor Wright company; The National Outfitting company; The Leader; Gray Millinery company; Boyle Furniture company; Home, Furniture company; Christensen Shoe company; Grill Market; Success Market; W. Pickett and Sons; J. H. Tillotson; Golden Rule Store; Consolidated Wagon and Machine Co.; Griffin Paint company; George A. Lowe company; C. J. Horrick and company; L. L. Clark & Sons company; W. H. Wright & Sons company; Fred M. Nye; Watson-Flygare Hardware; Ogden Furniture and Carpet company; Modern Market; Dee Art Shop; Stafford Millinery company; W. H. Jones; Spargo's Book Store; Paine and Hurst; Norman Sims; Gross Brothers; Dorothy Madison; Boyle Hardware; Ensign Hardware; Paul Stecker; C. L. Wappler; J. G. Read Brothers company; C. F. Grant; Murphy Wholesale Grocery; James McBeth; Dundee Woolen Mills; Browning Brothers company; Glen Brothers-Roberts Piano company; A. M. Hogan; The H. C. Hansen company.

Other names will probably be added to the list before Monday.

LOWERING OF FREIGHT RATE IS FOR THIS REGION

SALT LAKE, Nov. 7.—With the railroad administration and the railroads themselves represented by one of the largest gatherings of high transportation officials that Salt Lake has seen in many months, and the shippers represented by counsel for state commissions and civic bodies from seven different states, the stage was set yesterday for the opening of a hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission on the granting of proportionate distance rates on commodities from eastern points to intermountain points.

Both the railroad men and the freight traffic experts of the various parties initiating the complaint held continuous conferences yesterday in preparation for the actual opening of the proceedings in the federal building before Federal Examiners Henry Thurland and Harris Fleming.

The Traffic Service Bureau of Utah will present a preliminary intervention for the transportation department of the Salt Lake Commercial club supporting the allegations of the complaint. The bureau will be represented by Stephen H. Love, president; W. S. McCarthy, vice president, and H. W. Prickett, manager.

The complaint will be presented by J. B. Campbell, attorney for the Intermediate Rate association. After the presentation of the complaint will come the presentation of evidence, reports and documents in support of the allegations of the complaint. When the evidence in behalf of the complaint has been presented, the railroads, through counsel, will give their side of the case.

It is known that the evidence for submission by the complainants consists of many pounds of rate sheets, of diagrams, maps and other material which will be used to support the contentions of the complainants that the "director general of railroads is maintaining to all said intermountain sections commodity rates which are unreasonable, unjust and discriminatory," to use the language of the complaint itself.

It is the old story of the difference in rate for long and short hauls. Concessions have been made to inland points during the past year, and rates that were once higher to Salt Lake

MEMBER OF FAMOUS ROYAL GWENT QUARTETTE HERE WITH SCOTT, AS HIS ACCOMPANIST

Ogden lovers of music who remember the visit in times past of the Royal Gwent Male Voice choir, most of whose members were lost in the ill-fated sinking of the "Lusitania" and who remember the quartet called the Royal Gwent Male Voice quartet will find in the person of Arthur Winter Smith, who accompanies the famous Metropolitan basso, Henry Scott, tonight, the accompanist of those two musical aggregations which gave such unqualified pleasure to Ogden audiences in days past.

Mr. Smith is under contract to accompany Henry Scott on this western tour and again on another tour further east, commencing the middle of January next.

Beginning his training in South Wales and in London Mr. Smith has continued his studies in this country in the city of Chicago and it is asserted by many proficient masters that he bids fair to be one of the best accompanists that the American concert platform has known in many years.

Discontinue Trains On Milwaukee Road

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 7.—Temporary discontinuance of several trains in the northwest were announced today by the United States railroad administration.

Those on the first list are on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul between southwestern Minnesota, South Dakota and Iowa points. This action was taken, it was stated, to speed up coal shipments from the head of the lakes.

Official announcement of the program of the United States railroad and fuel administration is expected tomorrow when W. H. Groverman, fuel director for the northwest, returns from a conference at Duluth, with W. D. Brigham, supervisor of coal movement from the docks and the head of the lakes.

Some time ago, the mother, Queen Alexandria, decided to dispense with two of the three police chauffeurs formerly employed at Marlborough House, and she has in contemplation other reductions. The Princess Christian also has decided to dispense in future with all of the male indoor servants she employed in the past, and these are all now being replaced by women.

The latest royal economy involved the king's privy council, the last session of which was held at Balmoral Castle, Scotland. It has always been the custom for some of the councillors and the clerk to go from London to the councils at Balmoral, but, owing to the high cost of travel, it was arranged that the Duke of Connaught, the Lord Chamberlain, and Lord Stamfordham, the king's secretary, should act and so obviate the cost of the journeys to the government.

SHONTS LEAVES PART OF ESTATE TO 'MY FRIENDS'

New York, Nov. 7.—The will of Theodore P. Shonts, who was president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company, was filed for probate here today. After making provision for various members of his family, the residuary is left to "my friend," Amanda C. Thomas, of 930 Park avenue.

The will was filed by De Lancey Nicoll, who was Mr. Shonts' attorney. The widow of Mr. Shonts was granted temporary letters of administration upon the estate yesterday by Surrogate Fowler. She estimated that her husband left property worth nearly $500,000 and declared that no will could be found although diligent search had been made. Mrs. Shonts expressed fear that the major part of the property might go to another woman.

Besides his wife, Mr. Shonts left two daughters, the Duchess de Chaulnes of Paris, and Mrs. Marguerite Bingham of this city.

The will left to Mrs. Shonts a life insurance policy for $5,000 and a portrait of Mr. Shonts by Prince Troubetzkoy. The document stated that Mrs. Shonts was provided for in an agreement executed in June, 1917, and for that reason he makes no further provision for her except to acknowledge an indebtedness to her of $100,000 payable five months after his death.

The will leaves all of the jewelry "given to me by my friend Amanda C. Thomas to her son, Herbert Thomas."

A bequest of $2,500 is left to Vivian Bell, and one of $2,000 to "my friend" Louise Yeoman.

ARREST SUSPECT.
LAWRENCE, Mass., Nov. 7.—Irene Kaplan, leader of the last textile strike here, was arrested today after the police had been informed by young boys, found distributing revolutionary handbills on the streets, that Kaplan had employed them. He was charged with violating the city ordinance.

The handbills were signed "Local Lawrence Communist Party of America," and urged the workers of the world to "unite" with the association "you have nothing to lose but your chains."

The article refers to the second anniversary of the Russian revolution and urges the workers of Lawrence to show their solidarity with the workers of Russia by wearing the red emblem of the soviet government.
